(By order of G. Oscar Jacobsen, Esq., who is leaving the Neighbourhood, and disposing of his Collection) upon the Premises, as above,

On Thursday, October 4th, 1906,

Commencing at ONE o'clock sharp.

On view the Afternoon before and Morning of Sale. Admission by Catalogue only, which may be obtained at The Crown Hotel, Shipton-under-Wychwood; The Langston Arms Hotel, Chipping Norton Junction; The Bell Hotel, Charlbury; and of the Auctioneers, 11 Cornmarket St., Oxford, or 64 Minster St., Reading.

N.B.—For the convenience of intending purchasers, the Auctioneers have arranged for conveyances to meet the trains from Chipping Norton Junction which arrive at Shipton at 12 and 1 o'clock, also the train from Oxford arriving at Shipton at 12.36.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the purchaser, but if any dispute arise respecting the biddings, the Lot in question to be put up again and resold, at the discretion of the Auctioneers, who shall be sole arbitrators in all disputes.

2. No person to advance a less sum on any bidding than shall be named by the Auctioneers.

3. Each purchaser, if required, to pay down five shillings in the £ in part payment for the Lot he buys, and give in his name and place of abode, and the Auctioneers reserve to themselves the right to demand the amount each or any Lot may realise at the fall of the hammer, and in default to resell the same, or to refuse any bidding at their discretion.

4. The Lots to be paid for and taken away with all faults, imperfections, and errors of every description at the purchaser's expense and risk by four o'clock on Friday, October 5th, 1906. As the whole is on view, no warranty is given or to be implied by the descriptions in the Catalogue. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, purchasers are requested not to select their lots themselves, but obtain them through a porter, and a delivery order must previously be obtained from the Auctioneers' Clerk.

5. All lots left after the specified time to be at the purchaser's risk and liable to any expense that may arise from their not having been cleared in accordance with the fourth condition.

LASTLY.—Upon failure to comply with the above Conditions, the deposit shall be forfeited. The Lots uncleared by the time specified may be resold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any), together with all charges attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at the present Sale.
